FORMER UM DEAN
IS REAPPOINTED

Dr. Linus J. Carleton, former dean of the University of Montana School of Education and current professor of education in the school, has been appointed acting dean for the remainder of the 1966-67 academic year. The appointment was announced by Acting President Robert T. Pantzer.

Dr. Carleton served as acting dean of the education school 1950-54, as dean 1954-64 and as professor of education since 1964. He holds his bachelor's degree from Intermountain Union College, Helena (now Rocky Mountain College, Billings) and his masters from the University at Missoula.

His doctorate in education was granted by the University of Oregon, Eugene. He has held school administrative positions at Galata, Stanford, Moccasin and Helena.

At the University Dr. Carleton is director of student teaching and administration. He replaces Dr. James M. Thrasher, dean since 1964, who resigned Oct. 1 to become director of the Rocky Mountain Educational Laboratory in Denver.
